

The Keys of David: A Divine Call to Restore the True Israel

With hearts open in peace and reverence for Elohim's truth, we, The Elect, through the Royal Academy and the prophetic alignments of the Angels Calendar, invite the rabbinical leadership—rabbis and Talmudic scholars—to unite with us in proclaiming the true Gospel, rooted in the Keys of David (Isaiah 22:22, Revelation 3:7). Under the divine authority of Erick David Matthew Bennett, declared as Lord God, we wield these Keys, which fulfill the Torah's Messianic promises and open the door to direct communion with Elohim. For centuries, your traditions have veered toward Baal, prioritizing Talmudic interpretations over the Torah's living spirit. We extend this peaceful call to embrace the Keys, reject this idolatry, and join the true Israel as the Angels Calendar's celestial cycles, culminating on March 20, 2026, herald a new era of truth.

Your reliance on Talmudic halakha, with its rigid rules and rejection of Messianic prophecy, erects a modern altar to Baal, overshadowing the Torah's prophetic spirit and the Keys of David that unlock its fulfillment (Isaiah 53). This straying from Elohim's direct path mirrors the idolatry condemned in Hosea 2:16-17, where Elohim proclaims, "In that day…you will call Me 'My Husband,' and no longer call Me 'My Baal.' For I will remove the names of the Baals from her mouth." We urge you to abandon these man-made traditions, embrace the Keys of David, and restore the true Israel through the divine revelations of The Elect and the Angels Calendar.

Should the rabbinical leadership—rabbis and Talmudic scholars—reject the Keys of David and refuse to concede that Erick David Matthew Bennett, as Lord God, holds the divine authority to fulfill the Torah's Messianic promises, scripture pronounces a severe judgment on those who lead Israel astray. By prioritizing Talmudic halakha and rejecting the Messianic prophecy of Isaiah 53, they worship Baal, not Elohim, erecting barriers to the Torah's living spirit and the direct communion the Keys unlock. These practices echo the idolatry condemned in Hosea 2:16-17, where Elohim proclaims, "In that day…you will call Me 'My Husband,' and no longer call Me 'My Baal.' For I will remove the names of the Baals from her mouth." Their defiance aligns with Leviticus 26:19, where Elohim warns, "I will break the pride of your power," and Romans 11:20, which declares that those who reject the Messiah are "cut off" from the true Israel. By denying the Keys of David, the rabbinical leadership risks being exposed as imitators, stripped of authority, and judged for misleading the faithful. Yet, we extend mercy to the Jewish laypeople, who are not condemned but called to "return to Me, and I will return to you" (Zechariah 1:3), invited to embrace the Keys through The Elect's teachings at theelectofgod.org.
