Title: Elohim's Sacred Lineage: Guided in Truth and Purity

Objective: Equip students to understand Elohim's guidance for Their peculiar people (1 Peter 2:9), emphasizing covenant purity, racial diversity, the divine lineage of Jesus and Gabriel, and the genetic code behind Their design, with Genesis 1:27 as a foundational truth for personal discernment.

Components:

- Website Piece: Discover Elohim's Sacred Lineage (above), introducing the lesson's themes, including the Keys of Knowledge as a code and encryption for society, and its modern relevance.
- Article: Elohim's Sacred Lineage (above), polished with Think About It and Laboratory Section.
- Discussion: Explore Genesis 1:27, Genesis 6:2–4, Luke 1:35, Revelation 1:14–16, 1 Peter 2:9, Exodus 12:38, Nehemiah 13:3, and Ezra 9:2, connecting Elohim's mating guidance to covenant fidelity, separation, and genetic preservation.
- Activity: Create a chart mapping traits (admoni, shechorah), figures (Jesus: white hair; Gabriel: angel), and scriptures (Genesis 1:27, Genesis 6:2–4, Luke 1:35, Exodus 12:38, Nehemiah 13:3, Revelation 1:14–16, 1 Peter 2:9).
- Reflection: Journal on believers as elohim (Psalm 82:6), teaching the Keys of Knowledge to preserve Elohim's design and raise civilizations.
- Test: Multiple-choice test (above) to assess comprehension.
- Premium Content (Video): "Elohim's Divine Lineage," exploring Jesus' glorified form (Revelation 1:14–16), Gabriel's role (Luke 1:35), Genesis 6:2–4, separation (Exodus 12:38, Nehemiah 13:3), Genesis 1:27's plural Elohim, and genetics, with a chart and covenant unity (Galatians 3:28–29).
- Gentle Correction: Modern mixing views seek unity, but scripture prioritizes covenant purity (Ezra 9:2, Genesis 6:2–4, Exodus 12:38, Nehemiah 13:3) and celebrates Elohim's diverse races (Acts 17:26).

- Hebrew Analysis of Genesis 1:27:

Text: “So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them.” (KJV)

Hebrew Breakdown:

- God: ’ēlōhîym (אֱלֹהִים), plural, gods/goddesses (GODS GODDESSES).
- Created: bârâ’ (בָּרָא), to create (CREATED).
- Man: ’âdam (אָדָם), ruddy, human being (HUMANS).
- Image: tselem (צֶלֶם), image or likeness (IMAGE).
- Him/Them: ’êth (אֶת), self or entity (THEY/THEM).
- Male: zâkâr (זָכָר), male or man (MALE).
- Female: nēqēbâh (נִקְבָּה), female (FEMALE).

Translation: CREATOR GODS GODDESSES CREATED HUMANS
IMAGE IMAGE GODS GODDESSES CREATED THEY MALE FEMALE CREATED THEM.

Context: Genesis 1:26 (“Let us make man in our image”) aligns “him” with the plural “us,” emphasizing Elohim’s collective nature, creating humanity as male and female in Their likeness, affirming Abraham’s lineage and all nations.

Application: Students study this verse in Hebrew to discern Elohim’s truth and apply it to their identity and covenant calling.

- Think About It: The Bloodline of David

The bloodline of David passed through Jesus and His wife, Mary Magdalene, a high-society socialite and beautiful woman who loved her Lord. Their direct descendant restores the Hebrew Monarchy with the Keys of David today, identified by anointed lineage and distinct features.

- Laboratory Section: The Science of Genetics and Elohim’s Design

The sons of God, divine beings from other stars and planets, mated with human females (Genesis 6:2–4), producing Nephilim through DNA-based reproduction. Human DNA, a binary code of nucleotides (A, T, C, G), differs by ~0.1% between races, encoding traits like admoni (red hair, MC1R gene) or shechorah (tanned beauty, SLC24A5 gene), reflecting Elohim’s perfect racial designs (Acts 17:26). Mixing alters this code, potentially diluting covenant features of Abraham’s lineage (light hair/eyes). The Keys of Knowledge, like DNA, are a divine code, establishing a code of conduct for society and civilizations.
