

Exam for Lesson 6: Unifying the Scriptures Through the Power of Seven

Objective: Test understanding of the unified revelation of Torah, Gospel, and Quran through the Power of Seven and Gabriel's guidance.

1. Who unites the revelations of Torah, Gospel, and Quran?
 - a) Lord God Gabriel
 - b) The Prophet Ezekiel
 - c) The Apostle John
 - d) King Solomon

Correct Answer: a) Lord God Gabriel

Explanation: Gabriel, as the divine messenger, guides the revelations across all three scriptures.

2. What does the Power of Seven represent in the unified scriptures?
 - a) Human wisdom
 - b) Divine completion and revelation
 - c) Historical events
 - d) Ritual practices

Correct Answer: b) Divine completion and revelation

Explanation: The Power of Seven, seen in Genesis, Matthew, and Al-Fatihah, symbolizes God's perfect plan.

3. When are deceivers exposed in the unified narrative of scriptures?
 - a) Only in the Quran
 - b) In Al-Baqarah 2:8-15 and across scriptures
 - c) During the crucifixion
 - d) At creation

Correct Answer: b) In Al-Baqarah 2:8-15 and across scriptures

Explanation: Al-Baqarah 2:8-15 exposes false believers, a theme echoed in Torah and Gospel warnings.

4. Where do the Keys of Knowledge reveal the unified divine narrative?

- a) In Genesis, Matthew, and Al-Fatihah
- b) In secular texts
- c) In church doctrines
- d) In Talmudic writings

Correct Answer: a) In Genesis, Matthew, and Al-Fatihah

Explanation: Turning the Keys in these scriptures reveals their interconnected divine truth.

5. Why does the Royal Academy teach the unity of scriptures?

- a) To promote cultural history
- b) To prepare learners for Zion's restoration
- c) To focus on rituals
- d) To study ancient languages

Correct Answer: b) To prepare learners for Zion's restoration

Explanation: The Royal Academy unifies scriptural wisdom to empower learners for Zion's spiritual renewal.

